

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Author and Subject Lists of Text-Books in the Library

Compiled by the Librarian

SALEM, OREGON
WILLIS S. DUNIWAY, STATE PRINTER
1913

Rec'd. '35 - Sec 644

NOTES OF EXPLANATION.

The following list of text-books (1) by subject (2) by author, includes all text-books in the library at the time of publication. No pretension is made in the way of scientific classification or bibliography; the list has been copied from the card catalog comprising both printed and type-written cards; it doubtless contains many inconsistencies in punctuation and form, but if the pamphlet is of practical assistance to the legal profession in getting at the resources of the library in this particular class of books, its purpose will have been served.

AUTHOR AND SUBJECT LISTS:

The author list contains all entries arranged alphabetically by authors' surnames; it gives catch title or title as it appears on the back of the book, edition, date of publication, and number of volumes if more than one. The full descriptive title of each book as it appears on the title page, with other data concerning the book, including publisher, place and date of publication, is to be found in the subject list under the name of the subject most specifically describing the scope of the book.

WHAT BOOKS ARE INCLUDED:

The list includes text-books, series of reports on special subjects; e. g. American bankruptcy reports, and miscellaneous law books, including those of a recreational nature, histories of jurisprudence, legal essays, etc.

With regard to court reports, statutes and periodicals, the following statement may suffice:

Reports: The library contains complete files of United States and State court reports, the National reporter system, and other special series; practically complete files for England and her dependencies, including Canada, Australia and some of the African colonies.

Statutes: Statutes and session laws for the states of the United States are nearly complete from the beginning of the 19th century; files for most of the Canadian provinces are complete, and the statutes of England are available in the form of compilations and current series to date. We are adding as rapidly as possible the laws and court reports of all English speaking countries.

Periodicals: The library contains all periodicals indexed by Jones with the exception of a few minor and scarce items; all law periodicals indexed by the current Index to legal periodicals. Files of bar association reports will be completed as rapidly as possible.

THE LOANING OF BOOKS:

As the limits of the legal profession extend in Oregon, it will be possible to continue the custom of loaning books only as consideration is shown in returning them promptly. Altho books may be retained one month unless called for in the meantime (see Rules p. 6) it is urgently requested that they be returned to the library as soon as they shall have served the purpose of the borrower. The library contains but one copy of each book, and in order that the interests of 2,000 attorneys may be served equally and well, it is necessary to have the books in the library when not in actual use in an attorney's office. Failure to comply with the rules of the library must result in the loss of the privileges of the library.

We suggest that in sending for reports the titles of cases be given, in order that the citation may be verified, or, in case the volume cited is in use, the decision may be located in other series.

BOOKS WHICH MAY NOT BE LOANED:

Encyclopedias, dictionaries, unbound periodicals, Oregon court reports, Oregon statutes and briefs, U. S. statutes, and rare books cannot be loaned. The latest code and supplementary session laws of any state can be loaned for two days, or for such time as may be necessary for copying sections required.

EXPRESSAGE:

Express charges shall be paid by the borrower who is entitled to half-rate charges on books returned to the library.

SIGNS AND ABBREVIATIONS.

REGULATIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT LIBRARY.

HOURS.

1. The library shall be open from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily except Sunday and legal holidays; from 7 to 10 P. M. except Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays, during the sessions of court.

LOANS—WHO MAY BORROW.

2. Books may be loaned to the judges of the various courts, members of the bar of Oregon, State officers, and members of the Legislative Assembly; but the following books shall be reserved for use in the library: The latest editions of dictionaries and encyclopedias, unbound periodicals, Oregon briefs, Oregon statutes, and such books as the librarian may deem rare. The latest editions of the codes and digests of other states may be retained not longer than two days.

PERIOD OF LOAN.

3. No book shall be kept out of the library for a period greater than one month, and all books so loaned are subject to recall at any time when required for use in the Supreme Court library.

RECORD.

4. No book shall be taken from the library until recorded by the librarian or by an assistant.

BOOKS TO BE REPLACED.

5. Any book not returned after 15 days' notice shall be considered lost, in which case the borrower shall be required to replace it, or forfeit the privileges of the library.

CARE OF BOOKS.

6. Books must be handled with care. Leaves must not be turned down, and no marks with ink, pencil, or otherwise shall be made on the margins or text.

SMOKING.

7. There shall be no smoking in the library.

Adopted by the Supreme Court October 15, 1912.
